The demand for "Favorite" cooking stoves is greater than the agent, John T. Buckley, can supply.

The business boom has struck Frankfort, and is booming at R. K. McClure & Bro's. "Tackle" Todd and Hudson, he of the shoe string department, together with the proprietors, are up to their eyes in business, but cry for more. Read carefully every word on the last page of this paper, and be governed accordingly.

Mr. John W. McEwan, for some time past telegraph operator at the railroad depot in this city, has been ordered to Midway to take charge of the affairs of the railroad company at that place as station agent. This is a well merited promotion, and the company will have no cause to regret it, as "Bud" is, in every way, well qualified to fill the position to which he has been appointed.

Last Tuesday afternoon Dr. J. Lampton Price was driving down Ann street in his buggy, and when he reached Market street a boy ran out from behind a car that was standing on the track at that point, which frightened his horse, causing him to whirl suddenly and start off up the street again. The doctor was thrown out upon the pavement in front of the market-house, alighting upon his hands. His left wrist and elbow were badly sprained.

Frankfort was never livelier nor busier than on last Monday, County Court-day. A very large crowd of our country cousins came to town, and the merchants had more business than they could attend to. We understand that during the whole of last fall there was no such business done in this city in one day as was done last Monday. There was a large number of cattle and horses on the market, the prices for which they were sold being very fair. Beef cattle changed hands at 2 1/2 to 3 cents per pound, and milch cows, of which there were only a few, brought good prices. Horses were sold at low figures, but, considering that the winter is upon us, they sold well enough.

Don't forget that Prof. J. Prescott Eldridge, the greatest living recitationist, will give an entertainment at Major Hall to-night, in the course of which he will illustrate ten different varieties of the human voice. He will also, during the first part of the entertainment, faithfully portray, in voice, action, expression, and gesticulation, all of the passions, emotions, affections, feelings, and humors that control the mind and soul, through the medium of his programme of recitals, selected from his repertoire.

The New Castle, Pa., Gazette says of him:

With the magic powers of an accomplished elocutionist, Prof. Eldridge unites a profound knowledge of mesmerism, psychology and electro-biology, together with the ability to make the subjects of his almost unlimited mesmeric power, laugh, sing, talk, dance, stagger and fall as it drunk, or sleep as if in a trance, all by the simple exercise of his own will. That he possesses these remarkable powers, he gave ample proof to all who had the pleasure to witness his performance.

Bridgeport.

Look out for good news next week.

Mrs. Sallie Daugherty is going to spend the winter in Versailles.

Mr. Taylor Parrent is going to enlarge his business by adding a large stock of dry goods to it.

Prof. C. H. Parrent and family, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home near Antioch.

Mr. Thos Mahan, wife, and two children, who have been visiting relatives and friends in the neighborhood, have returned to their home in Jessamine.

Bridgeport needs a school-house. She ought to follow the example of Pea Ridge and Sheep Pen, adjoining districts, both of which have excellent school-houses.

Only forty ROUNDABOUTS of last week's issue stopped at this post-office. The others went on to Hardinsville, and up to this writing have not returned. Whose fault is it? We feel disappointed.

Bee.

Antioch.

Wick. Stivers has the chills.

Myrtle Robinson is quite ill.

Mrs. Robert Owens is very much indisposed.

Ed. Moore cut his foot severely with an ax last week.

Our school teacher's name is C. H. Parrent, instead of S. M. Parrent as reported in the proceedings of the Teachers' Institute.

Little Pearly White, infant daughter of James and Fannie Brawner, died at the residence of its parents last week. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. James Peters. Remember, fond ones, your loss is her eternal gain.

Last Sunday night being the time for the election of officers of the Antioch Christian Temperance Union, the following were chosen to serve for the ensuing six months, viz: W. H. Hampton, President; C. H. Parrent, Vice President; Miss Kate Glone, Secretary and Treasurer. After which speeches were made by Capt. Sanford Goin and Sidney French, of Frankfort, and G. W. Roach, of this place. Two signers, making a grand total of forty-nine since the second of February. Pos.

Everybody knows that so long as there is proud flesh in a sore or wound, it will not heal. The obstacle is speedily removed, and the flesh re-united by HENRY'S CARBOLIC SALVE, the finest embodiment in existence of that supreme purifier, carbolic acid. Its emollient ingredients modify its pungent acid basis, so that it never cauterizes, stings or scarifies the diseased part. Sores and eruptions of all kinds are cured by it. Sold by Hughes & Chiles, Druggists.
